

Security Category	Relevant China Peace Point	Relevant Ukraine's Peace Point	Relevant UNGA Resolution Point
Call for peace	3. Ceasing hostilities. 4. Resuming peace talks.	10. Confirmation of the war's end, including a document signed by the involved parties.	1. Underscores the need to reach, as soon as possible, a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine in line with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations; 5. Reiterates its demand that the Russian Federation immediately, completely and unconditionally withdraw all of its military forces from the territory of Ukraine within its internationally recognized borders, and calls for a cessation of hostilities;
1. Sovereignty – it is necessary to develop common terminology as it pertains to Ukraine, language that will be clear beyond all doubt and acceptable to all UN states.	1. Respecting the sovereignty of all countries.	5. Restoring Ukraine's territorial integrity and Russia reaffirming it according the U.N. Charter. 6. Withdrawal of Russian troops and cessation of hostilities, restoration of Ukraine's state borders with Russia.	2. to promote a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine, consistent with the Charter, including the principles of sovereign equality and territorial integrity of States; 4. Reaffirms its commitment to the sovereignty, independence, unity and territorial integrity of Ukraine within its internationally recognized borders, extending to its territorial waters;
2. International Law and justice	1. Respecting the sovereignty of all countries. All parties should jointly uphold the basic norms governing international relations and defend international fairness and justice. Equal and uniform application of international law should be promoted, while double standards must be rejected.	7. Justice, including the establishment of a special tribunal to prosecute Russian war crimes. 9. Prevention of escalation of conflict, and building security architecture in the Euro-Atlantic space, including guarantees for Ukraine.	3. Calls upon Member States and international organizations to redouble support for diplomatic efforts to achieve a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine, consistent with the Charter; 9. Emphasizes the need to ensure accountability for the most serious crimes under international law committed on the territory of Ukraine through appropriate, fair and independent investigations and prosecutions at the national or international level, and ensure justice for all victims and the prevention of future crimes;

3. Strategic Risks Nuclear security	7. Keeping nuclear power plants safe. 8. Reducing strategic risks.	1. Radiation and nuclear safety, focusing on restoring safety around Europe's largest nuclear power plant, Zaporizhzhia in Ukraine, which is now-Russian occupied.	10. Urges all Member States to cooperate in the spirit of solidarity to address the global impacts of the war on food security, energy, finance, the environment and nuclear security and safety, underscores that arrangements for a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine should take into account these factors, and calls upon Member States to support the Secretary-General in his efforts to address these impacts;
4. Food security	9. Facilitating grain exports.	2. Food security, including protecting and ensuring Ukraine's grain exports to the world's poorest nations	10. Urges all Member States to cooperate in the spirit of solidarity to address the global impacts of the war on food security, energy, finance, the environment and nuclear security and safety, underscores that arrangements for a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine should take into account these factors, and calls upon Member States to support the Secretary-General in his efforts to address these impacts;
5. Human security	6. Protecting civilians and prisoners of war (POWs). 5. Resolving the humanitarian crisis.	4. Release of all prisoners and deportees, including war prisoners and children deported to Russia.	6. Demands that the treatment by the parties to the armed conflict of all prisoners of war be in accordance with the provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War of 12 August Additional Protocol I to the Geneva 7. Calls for full adherence by the parties to the armed conflict to their obligations under international humanitarian law to take constant care to spare the civilian population and civilian objects, to ensure safe and unhindered humanitarian access to those in need, and to refrain from attacking, destroying, removing or rendering useless objects indispensable to the survival of the civilian population; 19492 and
6. Economic Security	10. Stopping unilateral sanctions 11. Keeping industrial and supply chains stable. 12. Promoting post-conflict reconstruction.	(Kyiv Security Compact page 4)	10. Urges all Member States to cooperate in the spirit of solidarity to address the global impacts of the war on food security, energy, finance, the environment and nuclear security and safety, underscores that arrangements for a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine should take into account these factors, and calls upon Member States to support the Secretary-General in his efforts to address these impacts;
7. Energy Security	11. Keeping industrial and supply chains	3. Energy security, with focus on price restrictions on	10. Urges all Member States to cooperate in the spirit of solidarity to address the global impacts of the war on food security, energy, finance, the

	stable. All parties should earnestly maintain the existing world economic system and oppose using the world economy as a tool or weapon for political purposes. Joint efforts are needed to mitigate the spillovers of the crisis and prevent it from disrupting international cooperation in energy, finance, food trade and transportation and undermining the global economic recovery.	Russian energy resources, as well as aiding Ukraine with restoring its power infrastructure, half of which has been damaged by Russian attacks.	environment and nuclear security and safety, underscores that arrangements for a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine should take into account these factors, and calls upon Member States to support the Secretary-General in his efforts to address these impacts;
8. Environmental Security	-----ABSENT-----	8. Prevention of ecocide, need for protection of environment, with focus on demining and restoring water treatment facilities.	10. Urges all Member States to cooperate in the spirit of solidarity to address the global impacts of the war on food security, energy, finance, the environment and nuclear security and safety, underscores that arrangements for a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in Ukraine should take into account these factors, and calls upon Member States to support the Secretary-General in his efforts to address these impacts;